THE METHODIST REVIVAL

A splendid Monday evening congregation attended the Methodist revival last night and the service was one much enjoyed by all present. Mr. Fisher sang "Come Over the Line," and Rev. Flinn preached on "The Epitome of the Gospel," his text being Isaiah 53:6. The sermon was a strong presentation of the nature of sin and of God's plan of getting rid of it. This morning's service was also largely attended and there were three professions at its close.

FIREMEN ELECTED OFFICERS.

At the regular meeting of the fire department last night the annual election of officers was held, which resulted as follows: Wade Cox, chief; Emmet Cole, foreman; Joe Wolton, assistant foreman; R. W. Odom, president; Clarence Vick, vice president; John Wittman, treasurer; J. W. Hamilton, delegate; A. E. Worley, alternate; Miss Katie Daly, sponsor; G. C. Calhoun, driver. The election of a secretary was postponed until a future meeting.

CHEMICAL COMPANY ORGANIZED.

At the meeting of the fire department last night Messrs. C. E. Jenkins, J. D. Daly, Jr., C. G. Wetter, J. J. Ray and W. J. Christian tendered their resignations, which were accepted. The above named gentlemen resigned with a view of organizing a chemical company, and today met at the fire station and effected the organization. The regular fire company agreed to share its meeting room with them, give them the use of the present chemical apparatus and be of any assistance possible.

A committee composed of Messrs. Ray, Jenkins and Christian will appear before the city council this afternoon to obtain recognition of their company.

An election of officers was held at their organization which resulted as follows: J. J. Ray, president; J. D. Daly, Jr., secretary-treasurer; C. G. Wetter, foreman; W. J. Christian, engineer.

TWO FINE PORKERS.

Mr. J. B. Dunn, of near Wheelock, is a prize winner on big hogs. He killed two yesterday that he fattened especially for lard and sausage. One weighed 594 and the other 595 pounds. The Eagle man is under obligations for an invitation to come out and eat good old country sausage.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY YESTERDAY.

Last yesterday afternoon a serious runaway occurred in the eastern part of town. While Messdames S. H. Bateman, Gordon Lewis and J. L. Bowls were driving, their horse was frightened and ran away, throwing Mrs. Bateman and Mrs. Bowls from the buggy. Mrs. Lewis managed to turn the horse into a fence and stop him. Mrs. Bateman was injured most seriously. The buggy wheel passed over her head and she was severely bruised. She was given medical attention at once and is reported resting easy today.

HARRY AVEY KILLED.

Harry Avey was killed in Houston yesterday afternoon and H. L. Spencer is being held charged with the deed. Avey lived in this city for some time, being connected with the Cozy theater, and was well known here. Family trouble is supposed to have been the cause of the killing.

DISTRICT COURT.

The case of William Talley vs. Frances Talley, trespass to try title, was concluded and the court rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. There was little business transacted today and the jury was excused.
